The Real Cook Book

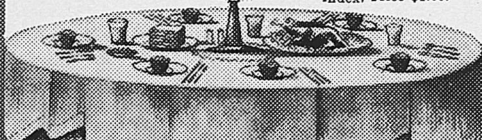

For Mothers, Brides,
Chefs, Caterers, Boarding
Houses and Hotels

No art or science is more important to the welfare and happiness of the people than the culinary art.

The Standard Domestic Science Cook Book—a veritable Encyclopedia of Domestic Science—by Wm. H. Lee and Jennie A. Hansey, marks the world's advance in this most necessary art.

It covers the entire field of Domestic Science—is practical, helpful and indispensable to the housewife, because it points the way to correct housekeeping; to the young bride, because it supplies any deficiencies in home training; to chefs and caterers because it is a correct guide to judicious buying, choice cooking and proper service; to the invalid, because it gives appropriate recipes for the sick and convalescent; to schools teaching domestic science, because it gives the rules of economical household management, instructions in plain and fancy needlework, in the art of knitting, crocheting and sewing, as well as the proper management of the laundry and care of linen.

The Anna Groff-Bryant Institute

Devoted Exclusively to the Training of Singers and Vocal Teachers

Anna Groff-Bryant, Founder and Director, Fine Arts Building, Chicago

This strictly American Institute stands secure like a tripod supported on three solid shafts equally distinctive and stable.

1st. The New American School of Vocal Arts.

2nd. A complete rounded-out system of education for singers and teachers.

3rd. A pathological department for the treating of all kinds of Vocal ailments, by Vocal Therapy.

This tripod is an American discovery and development and the product of over a decade and a half of independent scientific research work in Vocal matters by Anna Groff-Bryant. Though but recently brought to public notice under the name of new school work, this tripod has been in practice at the Anna Groff-Bryant studio for the past five, ten and fifteen years respectively.

Singers' and teachers' courses, leading to graduations, cover a period of three, five and seven years depending upon the natural ability of the student. Students may also take selected studies of private vocal lessons only. Private vocal students received at any time. Claims of the Institute are open to a rigid investigation. A limited number free for demonstrating.

Regular school term begins October 5, closes second week in June.

Send for Institute Booklet, giving full description of the work of the Institute.

Stationery
Art Goods
Original Paintings
Picture Frames

are the principal features of a division in our establishment to which we give special interest and study.

In Stationery, for personal use, we specialize in the finest papers, the newest shapes, and these create an individuality which should mark one's social correspondence.

Our Engraved Forms are recognized as essentially correct, and we are especially interested in preparing those for Announcements, Weddings, Invitational Affairs, and Business Purposes. We can assure a prompt and accurate service.

Our collection of originals in Art Landscapes and Portraits is limited to the few that are really beautiful and treasures to possess.

In Picture Frames we introduce many new ideas and create the most appropriate for the pictures in mention. All of this work we create and find it far more satisfactory than attempting to make a picture successful with stock frames.

The Menu, After-Dinner Cards and Favors produced by our own artists have upon many noted occasions received favorable comment. The same artists design the beautiful Art Calendars which we have pride in displaying.

You are cordially asked to visit this division merely to be posted on the advantages it affords
